

GO TO HELL!!!

*"Time goes by,
and it is coming this is it".*

This couplet from his father was published by Vytautas V. Landsbergis, the son of Prof. Vytautas Landsbergis, on his account... After reading it, I thought:"And yet, where are we heading and what is that "this is it"?"and I decided to try to determine that direction, maybe even predict it. The title of this text came after I myself researched some of the current topics raised here. I did not want to deviate from the "Path of Light", but life does not ignore our wishes.The path of light is not for everyone. Whoever finds it, protect it. Do not lose this Path for the sake of the path.

If we asked a passerby on the street: "Can you tell me where our life, the whole world, is heading?"-we would probably get a short: "Hm. Who knows? Maybe only God..."

Are we so indifferent to our future that we can't say anything about what will happen tomorrow, in a year, in ten years? Unfortunately, not everyone thinks like that.There are people in the world who live predicts and Pushing pushes in your own invented, set direction. They don't wait for what will happen, they are working.This, of course, primarily concerns politicians, owners of big business and global corporations, their associated communication leaders, philosophers, and political figures of various stripes.

After D. Trump was elected President of the United States for a second term, the world shook. It was as if the world picture puzzles created by all previous politicians began to fall apart. If such a powerful "earthquake" had occurred, did no one predict it? Did the "seismologists" act so vilely silently and not warn that an "earthquake" was coming? Now their names have emerged, become known, they have begun to be discussed, analyzed, and attempts are being made to predict how much each person is connected to whom and how, what they are striving for, what they are capable of, and where President D. Trump is headed. He alone could not have done anything without the "seismologists." During the time that J. Biden's supporters were leading the United States, preparations were being made in D. Trump's environment for a new leap to power; the winners, in a moment with all their might after the elections, rushed to carry out their planned work, and that's what shocked everyone.

Now it has become clear WHAT brought Donald Trump to the White House? There is a lot of material, and how to present it to you still had to be thought out. This should not be understood as a conspiracy theory, nor as a philosophical reasoning about the policies pursued by D. Trump. The facts are the most important. So I decided: let

The "seismologists" themselves speak for themselves. And I think you will be able to understand their "philosophies" no worse than political scientists. But first, an introduction is needed.

INTRODUCTION: THE ROOTS OF TRUMPISM

Donald appeared on the US Presidential stage for the second time, crammed with such a large amount of "processed information" that it was even surprising: who helped him yes to speak and yes to act? After all, it was not himself, a man of almost 80 years old, who organized the entire "MAGA policy". Yes: not himself. Some personalities worked and are still working next to and behind him, younger, influential, very rich, educated, who encouraged the president not to be afraid and take decisive steps to implement the MAGA project. There is nothing more to say about the aggressive attitude towards migrants - this is not even Trump's most important card. And the war with the "enemies" who are hindering the MAGA project really surprised, stunned the whole world. What was the essence of that project supposed to be, that even neighboring countries and old allies suddenly became enemies - America has never pursued such a policy. The war with Iran was also programmed...

The main goal of all those steps: to encompass, to take into one's own hands, to force as many independent states as possible to "cooperate" ... What is greed? A new form of totalitarianism? Insanity?

So, WHAT do Trump and co. want? First of all, to divide the world so that part of it works for Trump's glory... Such a challenge would be ridiculous if it weren't so dangerous.

But that's not all. What the war with Iran will end up like is completely unclear. Behind Trump are people who are laying the foundations for a completely different America, different human existence for the project Philosophers have given it a new term - transhumanism If a war with Iran doesn't derail the MAGA project, maybe we can tackle the "human problem." A person is a material that must serve the needs of MAGA.

The topic of transhumanism has appeared in our press recently (one publication, one book), although the topic was discussed about a decade ago. about accelerated human evolution (artificial biotechnology) seemed like science fiction and nothing more. Now that topic is sufficiently developed, so we can talk about more specific works of bio- and political technologists. The latter also work in the White House. I invite you to familiarize yourself with their portraits and views. Who rolled out the red carpet for Trump to the White House? Everything happened like in a slow motion, gradually - there was a long period before Trump came to power, which is very worthy of analysis. Nothing happens suddenly in one day. Any conflict in a family or society begins with the anger of different family members or groups in society. Anger has its own generator, which works quietly, philosophizing... (writing books and texts to social networks) and in this way spreads mental viruses, fully aware that there will be those who will be infected with the products of his "wisdom". Philosophy, like love for wisdom, died long ago, now it works "for Rage culture". The fight against the "enemy" has become daily bread. A network like FB has turned people into living puppets, automatons, robots, zombies... And those, who are "behind the scenes", are making a business out of it and deliberately harassing us. So, who is angry with whom and about what in the US and around the world? For whom Is the eternal fight against black people, against foreigners, against Jews or Muslims, against women, against other people useful? Those characters need to be known more closely. I want to emphasize that I am publishing public information that is available on Wikipedia and other portals - so there is no need for comments. The bare facts speak for themselves.

From myself, I just want to warn you that your choice, man, will determine your life's journey and its end...Remember this! The human soul does not die. After the death of the body, it travels to the world that it itself created. You don't believe it? That's your business. I believe because I know.

"...whether things went well here or not so well."

That:""This is it" is neither good nor bad. According to Buddhists, we cannot choose pain, but we can choose suffering. So maybe we can choose joy, even when it hurts...

So slowly

the red sun will rise

we looked at the evening

like on TV

such a short time

together again
